Johnathan Ahle's young career continued to thrive in 2025, finishing sixth at the Meadowlands with 66 wins and over $1M in purses. Overall, Ahle won 239 races and $3,045,659, his third straight season past the $3M mark. Ahle's biggest win to date came in a Kindergarten Series Final with Busy Miss Lissy.

Ahle finished in the Top 10 at the Meadowlands with 37 wins in 2024. Overall, Ahle won a career high 373 races and $3,389,189, and passed the $7M mark. Ahle also cracked the Top 10 at Harrah's Philadelphia with 52 wins.

Ahle is one of the bright young stars of the sport in New Jersey, while showcasing his talent at The Big M and Freehold Raceway. In 2023, Ahle posted the best season of his career, winning 311 races and $3,099,638 in purses.

Ahle was given the opportunity to drive in amateur races a few years ago after taking a job cleaning stalls and feed tubs with the Shaun Vallee stable as a teenager then working his way up to jogging horses.

"It was working out real well for me in the amateurs and I had a lot of success, so I figured why not take a shot and make some money while I'm doing it and see what happens," said Ahle, who now works for Noel Daley as he pursues a professional driving career.

Ahle appears on track for a big career. "I worked for Shaun Vallee for seven or eight years," said Ahle of his experience in the horse business. "It was a small stable, and I did pretty much everything to help out."

It was Vallee's guidance that first led to Ahle's appearance on the racetrack in public view. "He encouraged me to enter the amateur events," Ahle said. Unlike most of the amateur drivers, Ahle was young enough to consider the experience and join the ranks of the professionals. That's what he chose to do.

"In August [2022] I decided to stop racing in the amateurs," Ahle said. The decision put him on the list of catch drivers to be called upon, and after driving more than 600 horses in 2022, he broke the 2,300 mark with his drives in 2023.

Asked about the rapid acceleration of his career, Ahle said, "It's been better than I could have expected."

Bartlett was born and raised in Maine, where he started his harness racing career before establishing himself as a top driver at Yonkers. He spent his formative years working with his grandfather, Dick Bartlett, and mother Sonia. He focused on basketball in high school and college, but turned his talents to racing on a regular basis in the early 2000s.

Brett Beckwith's young career continued to soar in 2025. Beckwith won his first Meadowlands driving title, and won 146 races at The Big M. Overall, he won 593 races and a career high $7,190,402, with a UDRS of .343. On a late-season rampage at The Big M, Beckwith became the youngest at age 22 to hit the 2,000 wins plateau. Beckwith also represented the US in the World Driving Championship in New Zealand.

Brett Beckwith was voted the sport's Rising Star in 2024. Beckwith had 608 wins (third in North America) and $6,271,414, along with a .334 UDRS. He won driving titles at Saratoga Harness and Plainridge where he tied for the top spot.

In 2023 he finished with an impressive record of 2,675 – 453-352-350 $4,408,037. Beckwith finished second in the Saratoga Harness driver standings with 227 wins and $2,136,214 in purses. He was runner up (51-50 votes) for USHWA's Rising Star Award.

Beckwith followed up his first $1 million season in 2021 with $2,253,385 in purse earnings in 2022, to go along with 231 wins.

A fourth-generation participant, Beckwith can still vividly recall the moment, the one when he knew he was going to join the ranks of standardbred racing. Horse racing is deeply rooted in his DNA – his father Mark is a successful driver, and his mother Melissa is an accomplished trainer.

On May 16, 2019, taking part in North American Amateur Drivers Association trotting event at Yonkers Raceway, the then 16-year-old driver sat behind Dark Pool, a veteran trotting son of Cantab Hall. The $8,000 race, a non-wagering affair, saw Beckwith and Dark Pool get away third before the duo grabbed the lead. Ahead by five lengths at the stretch call, the gelding — a $135,000 purchase at the 2014 Standardbred Horse Sale Company's auction in Harrisburg, PA — sailed past the wire an eight-length winner in 1:56. It was impressive on its own merits, even more so considering it was Beckwith's third drive after having had only 19 qualifiers of experience. He also bested a trio of former National Amateur Driver of the Year winners in the process.

Posting four wins, four seconds and a pair of thirds from 25 starts in 2019, his rookie season, his performance was impressive beyond just solid numbers. A winning attitude, in and out of the sulky, immediately caught the attention of horsepeople. Beckwith was, and still very much is, cognizant of maintaining an even keel when it comes to his career, one that is now in high gear. "I'm very happy with the opportunities that have come my way, for sure. I wish I could have capitalized on a couple more of them.

Anibal Borjas maintained his steady presence at the Meadowlands in 2025. Overall, he won 31 races and $408,501.

The 42-year-old Guatemala native has worked for trainer Tony Alagna since the conditioner opened his public stable in 2009. Borjas scored his first pari-mutuel victory in his first attempt, on July 17, 2023 at Pocono Downs. Anibal (pronounced A-knee-ball) sat patiently in the two-hole guiding the 3-year-old filly Mint Julep Hanover (Stay Hungry) and pulled in late stretch to brush by the leading Eazy Hunting (Huntsville) in :28.2 to prevail by a head in 1:55.3.

"I was very excited and happy and I couldn't believe that I could win," Anibal related. "I really didn't believe it at first, and then Marcus Miller (driving Eazy Hunting) told me congratulations. It was very emotional for me, and I was crying a little bit, because years ago, back in Guatemala, I would have never dreamed that something like this was possible, and at the time, I had no knowledge of harness racing. So, this win, for me, really was a dream come true."

Besides Anibal and his family, there was no one happier than Tony, who made the two-hour trek to the Poconos for his friend's official debut behind the gate. "I met Anibal when I was out here running Erv's (Miller) barn years ago," Tony revealed. "When I opened up my own barn in 2009, he came with me, and has gone right up the ladder. He started out as a caretaker, and moved up to being a trainer, and the last few years he's really shown that he wants to learn more in the industry and has been my go-to guy for just about everything."

"Anibal is one of those guys who is at the barn all day, every day, and looks at things, and figures out a way to make it work," Tony explained. "We wanted to have a training strip and jog track inside our main track here at the farm, and one day, Anibal just got on the grader and carved out what we needed. When our regular trackman showed up, he said that Anibal had done a great job with setting those up for us. That's the kind of person he is."

"He always had the knack for horses and when he showed interest in wanting to get his qualifying license, I supported him," Tony confirmed. "I started letting him qualify some horses and he did really well, he had such a desire to learn. Eventually I put him on some 2-year-olds and did a great job for us. And I figured what better place to learn than at the Meadowlands, where you have the best driving colony in North America?"

Boyd has found most of his success at Pocono Downs where he finished fifth in 2023 with 174 wins and $2,111,741.

Boyd became enamored by the racing game a few years after being introduced to golf, when he watched his dad pull off a slick move to win a race. "I remember falling in love with one certain horse (Cagey Attack) that really just hooked me into the business," Boyd said. "He was a horse that would come from behind. I'll never forget, he was 10 lengths off at the top of the stretch on a five-eighths track, and there was about a space just as big as the bike, and he shot up that space the entire time and just barely won with my dad."

"That right there hooked me right in. That was one of the most exhilarating moments ever. I was probably 7 or 8. I started jogging when I was with my dad, and the first time I jogged a horse by myself was when I was 10, and it was Cagey Attack."

One of Boyd's first hands-on experiences with harness racing came as a pre-teen, when his dad let him announce some fair races at age 8. After a few years, Brett felt he was ready for pari-mutuel action and got him behind the mike of the now defunct Jackson Harness Raceway, where Brett served as track announcer.

Ginsberg enjoyed his best campaign ever at the Meadowlands cracking the Top 10 during the 2018-19 meet with 49 wins and $648,374 in purses. Ginsberg also passed the $8 million mark in 2019.

Ginsberg passed the $7 million career mark in 2018 and continued to make inroads at the Meadowlands. Ginsberg made a smooth transition to the Meadowlands during the 2016-17 meet from the half-mile track at Freehold Raceway where he has dominated the standings. Ginsberg posted a career best season in 2017 with $1.4 million and the 1,000 win mark. Ginsberg often drives for his uncle, Vincent Fusco, Jr. The pair picked up top honors at Freehold in 2015.

Ginsburg grew up around horses in New Jersey. His grandfather, Vincent Fusco, Sr., and his uncles Carmine, Paul, and Vinnie, were all in the business as trainers and drivers.

"My grandfather, Vincent Fusco, Sr., who lived in Freehold, had a small training track right in his backyard. It's one-fifth of a mile so you've got to go around five times. The first time I ever sat in a sulky, when I was 13, I was jogging a horse around that little track."

Ginsburg started driving in 2009 and he admits that he wasn't exactly an expert from the start despite starting his career with a win. "I won with my first drive, which was at Freehold," said Ginsburg. "The name of the horse was Badlands Woman. I'm not sure if I knew what I was doing, but winning my first drive ever was a confidence booster.

"I'd say that for the first two months or so I was still a little nervous," he continued. "I remember the first time I drove in the rain, I couldn't see a damn thing. I had to figure out a better way of using the goggles. But after those first few months I got comfortable."

"I've been in a couple of wrecks (accidents) and that's the toughest part of driving horses. I don't care how much experience you have, you come back after an injury, or getting thrown in a spill, and you tend to drive a bit more cautiously. Psychologically, it can take a while to get over it."

Mark Herschberger's young career really took off in 2025 when he finished second in the Meadowlands standings with 99 wins and $1,031,889. Overall, "Hot Hands" Herschberger won 202 races and $2,354,834 in only his fourth year of driving. He was also fourth at Harrah's Philadelphia with 98 wins. Herschberger won six races on the November 28 card at The Big M.

Mark Herschberger joined the new wave of young drivers at the Meadowlands in 2024. Overall, Herschberger racked up career highs of 103 wins and $686,966.

On June 1, Herschberger won his fourth race at The Meadowlands, driving the Ron Burke-trained Canigetaloup (49-1) to a nose win in a career-best 1:50.1. Coming out on top at "The Mecca of Harness Racing" is always special, but the circumstances surrounding this particular victory made it more so. Herschberger, didn't find out he was driving the 3-year-old filly until around 4 p.m. on the afternoon of the race in a text from Meadowlands associate judge Jim Grow.

According to Herschberger, Grow's text said he needed to make a driver change on Canigetaloup, and when Grow called Burke to find out who he wanted, Ronnie said: "Put the Herschberger kid up."

This was a surreal moment for Herschberger, who is only in his second full year of driving horses.

"It made me feel very good, actually," Herschberger said. "I don't know, words can't really describe it. I was floored when I found out [Burke] asked for me." When asked why he chose Herschberger, Burke said with a laugh, "I recognized his name." Burke went on to say that "[Herschberger] did a great job," and he would consider using him again in similar circumstances.

As a horseman just starting out, Herschberger has taken every opportunity, when presented, to learn from the top drivers at The Meadowlands. "Guys like Dexter Dunn, Andrew McCarthy, even my uncle, Andy Miller, I pay attention to all those guys, even just the way they hold their hands or hold their whip," Herschberger said. "Just the smallest things I try to pay attention to and take something from them and I feel like that's helped me because, to tell you the truth, I haven't had a coach to teach me how to drive and how to read a race program."

Despite the fact that he didn't realize how much he loved harness racing until about seven years ago while working for his uncle, Erv Miller, he grew up around horses, just not always standardbreds.

Miller first started driving in 1981, but it wasn't until 1988 that his career began to soar when he steered 153 horses to the winner's circle, six more wins than he enjoyed in the previous seven years. He had his first million-dollar season in 1992 and quickly went on to dominate the Ohio circuit, behind the likes of 1995 and 1996 Ohio Horse of the Year Crisp Sahbra. Another one of Miller's Buckeye accomplishments was a nine-winner card on January 10, 1998 at Northfield Park. He was inducted into the Ohio Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 2010.

Tyler Miller maintained his nightly presence at the Meadowlands in 2025, while driving for his parents, Andy and Julie Miller's Team Orange Crush stable. Overall, Miller won 161 races and $1,731,456.

Tyler Miller's young career continue on a positive trajectory in 2024, winning a career high 249 races and $1,840,686, while maintaining a steady presence at the Meadowlands. Miller finished second in the Freehold driver standings with 116 wins.

Tyler Miller continued to gain traction at The Big M and beyond in 2023. Overall, Miller won 188 races and $1,519,320.

Tyler Miller posted his first $1 million season in 2022 with 101 wins.

In any profession that takes place in the public arena, an offspring trying to follow in their famous parents' footsteps usually has advantages and disadvantages, such as the pressure of living up to their predecessors' accomplishments. Harness racing driver Tyler Miller, however, feels it's a one-way street void of potholes. "I really only think it helps me," Miller said. "I guess the pressure of my mom and dad being my mom and my dad just fuels my fire even more and makes me try to be as good as them, if not better."

That in itself is a lofty goal as Tyler's dad is Andy Miller. And then there is his mom, Julie Miller, and his uncle Erv Miller.

Tyler had always helped around the barn on weekends and in the summer. But around age 14, when he would attend a Hambletonian or Meadowlands Pace, is when Miller started to realize his dad was a cut above in his profession. "When they had the autograph sessions at The Meadowlands, you'd just see these huge lines of people waiting to get autographs from all the drivers racing that day, and you're like 'Well one of the people they're waiting to get an autograph from is my dad,'" Tyler recalled. "That was pretty cool to see and realize what was actually going on."

Julie's desire for Tyler to graduate college was no joke, of course, and for four years he put horses on hold except for when he came home in the summer. "When I got my degree, I realized that horses were what I wanted to do and I dove right in. My parents gave me a lot of freedom and let me decide what I wanted to do with my career and how I wanted to pursue my life. I chose harness racing and that's what I'm sticking to."

Tyler admits that maybe his last name "helps a little" in making his way, but Andy and Julie are letting him do it on his own. Miller refuses to use their names to help himself get drives. "I try to learn something from anybody I can," he said. "Driving at The Meadowlands is one of the best colony of drivers there is. I try to take something from them, and everywhere else I drive at."

Sounds like a guy who truly is making his own way.

Patrick Ryder increased his nightly presence at the Meadowlands in 2025. Overall, Ryder posted career highs of 77 wins and $1,172,624.

Overall, Ryder won 59 races and $825,905 in 2024

The son of prominent New Jersey-based trainer Chris Ryder, has been in the harness game all of his life.

"I've always loved animals, and as a kid I was outside 24/7," Patrick offered. "I loved fishing and hunting, and I always liked the horses, but being so close to it with my dad training, I guess I didn't jump into it right away or was as involved as I could have been, even though I spent a lot of time at the barn during school breaks. I had good friends in the business who were other trainers or driver's kids, such as Jesse and Keith Pierce, Ronnie's (driver Pierce) kids, and Jack Pelling (trainer Brett's son). Ronnie was like a second father to me, and I really looked up to him as a driver."

After graduating from Allentown High School, Patrick attended the University of Vermont with his sights set on obtaining an undergraduate degree in biology. "I fell in love with Snowboarding, and worked at snowboarding shops, and participated on teams, and spent a year in Vermont before transferring to Rutgers, where I got a degree in economics," Patrick stated.

"Once I came back to New Jersey, I started getting more involved with the horses, and I fell right into it; it was natural for me because I had worked for dad in the barn off and on over the years before I decided to pursue it full time. I stopped working in the snowboarding industry and groomed for a few years and I liked the track work and felt I was better on than off the track, so I segued into becoming a second trainer."

"I simply love racing," he said. "There's nothing like winning a race, especially when the horse does it really well, and the horse is a good horse. And, to race with my father and our family's support is such a blessing. We have family who are watching us race back in New Zealand, while my wife's family watches us from their home in Poland. I realize how blessed and fortunate I am to be in this position," Patrick concluded. "To have a father who gave me direction and to be raised around horses—it's just a passion that is also a labor of love."

Yogi Sheridan remained a nightly competitor at the Meadowlands in 2025 and a regular in the MADC Series. Overall, Sheridan won 54 races and $478,787 in purses.

Sheridan was voted the 2024 Amateur Driver of the Year by USHWA. Overall, Sheridan enjoyed his best season to date winning 78 races and $587,366.

When Sheridan was informed that he was chosen as the United States Harness Writers Association Amateur Driver of the Year, he got emotional and thanked God and his family — his wife, Nickeya, and four children, Naeem, Mekhi, Khalani, and Khalia — for being his support system.

Sheridan is a second-generation horseman and has been around harness racing from the time he could walk. Sheridan's love of the game came from his father, Melvin, and although the senior Sheridan died when Yogi was in the first grade, a lasting impression was made on Yogi and his three older brothers, Nathaniel, Mark and MJ.

Unlike many of the amateur drivers that Yogi races against, harness racing is his sole profession. He has a small stable of four that he trains, one of which he owns. He also owns a piece of both Yayas Hot Spot N and Muscle Factory A with partners Team Tritton Inc.

The Trittons — Shane and his wife, Lauren — moved to the U.S. from Australia in 2020 and last year were looking to get Yayas Hot Spot N into some amateur races.

“We've had him since he was 2 years old and he's 14 now,” Shane said of Yayas Hot Spot N. “Yogi was a pretty accomplished driver... so, we kind of sussed him out and asked if he'd be willing to drive a few of our horses if we had anything that fit. And after a while, we realized he's a good driver. One of the main things we love about him is that he cares a lot about the horses, and he listens and he tries to help with improving them, and lets you know what you can do to help them, which, you know, is a big thing for a driver, let alone an amateur driver.”

Stephen Smith completed the 2022 season with 4,424 career wins and passed the $40 million mark in career purse earnings.

How did you get started in harness racing? When I was in high school, I had a baseball coach that had a few horses racing at Rockingham and Foxboro. I used to go to the races with him once in a while and on the weekends, he would go to the barn at Foxboro to see his horses and I would tag along, and that's how I got the bug hooked into me.

What was your best moment in harness racing? Winning the Valley Victory with Garden Spot (2002, Meadowlands), because I actually owned the horse myself.

Which is the best horse you've ever driven? Shady Character. I bought him, broke him, trained him and drove him some.

Do you have a driving style? Oh yeah. I'm a patient off the pace driver. I'm a closer, really. It fits in with the fact that I do something, which is rarer now, I'm a driver-trainer. Unfortunately, if I overdrive one, I'm the guy that has to go down and look at them in the barn the next morning; not a catch-driver. The horses' longevity in their careers is more important to me than any one particular race. Over the years that has affected my catch-driving career because people have had that in the back of their heads. They don't think I can leave, but when I have to, I do. I don't ever want to put a horse in a bad spot where they can get hurt for a few weeks.

My girlfriend (Karen Garland) runs the barn and is responsible for everything. When I say I have a barn, I'm meaning I own a lot of horses. The horses Karen has, I probably own a part of all of them. A lot of these catch drivers, they might own one or two, but a large majority that I drive are mine. I'm a guy that came into the business backwards and started late, and the only person in my family who's in it. I never drove a horse until I graduated college. For someone that started that way and never had big owners to drive for, to grind out 5,000 wins, I'm hoping I can get there, I think that's pretty good.

Stratton was the leading driver in wins at Yonkers in 2021 and finished second in 2022.

Stratton received the 2009 Rising Star Award from the U.S. Harness Writers Association in 2009.

Stratton's decision to pursue a career in racing can be traced back to 2001, when he was the groom for two-time Ohio Sire Stakes champion Noble Cam, trained by his father, David.

Annually one of the top drivers in the sport, once again Tim Tetrick balanced his season between the Meadowlands, Harrah's Philadelphia and Dover Downs in 2025. Overall, Tetrick won 481 races and $9,806,782. He won his fourth straight driving title at Harrah's Philadelphia with 184 wins and was the leading driver at Dover Downs again with 158 wins. Tetrick also passed the $288M mark and he won the Perfect Sting and Lady Liberty with Sylvia Hanover.

Tim Tetrick slipped out of the Top Ten at the Meadowlands in 2024, yet the Hall of Famer maintained his foothold in the upper echelon of the sport winning 482 races and $8,907,625. Tetrick also passed 14,000 career wins (seventh all time) and the $278M mark (third all time). He was leading driver at Harrah's Philadelphia for the third straight year with 177 wins and a .382 UDRS. He also led the driver standings at Dover Downs with 182 wins and $2.2M.

Tim Tetrick continued to build on his Hall of Fame legacy in 2023. Tetrick finished sixth at The Big M with 64 wins and $3,097,202. Overall, The Bionic Man won 529 races and $14,123,127 (second in North America), and he passed the $269 million in career earnings, which places him third all-time. Tetrick won his sixth Meadowlands Pace with unanimous Horse of the Year Confederate. On Hambo Day, Tetrick scored a 28-1 post ten upset in the Hambo Oaks with Heaven Hanover, and equaled the Cane Pace stakes record of 1:47.3 with Confederate. That sophomore son of Sweet Lou reeled off 11 straight wins, including a Breeders Crown, led the season with earnings of $1,633,854 and became the fastest three year old in history with a 1:46.1 world record.

Tim Tetrick posted another Top Five season at the Meadowlands in 2022 with 77 wins and was second in purse earnings with $3,411,454. Overall, Tetrick finished second in North America with $14,536,063 in purse earnings and won 574 races. He won the Hambletonian Oaks from post ten with Fashion Schooner and a Stanley Dancer Memorial division with Rebuff. Tetrick sparked a Hambletonian Day triple for trainer Jim Campbell winning the Continental victory from post ten with 21-1 longshot Mlsswalner Fashion. Tetrick also won the driving titles at Harrah's Philadelphia (258 wins) and Dover Downs (142 wins).

Tim Tetrick enjoyed another strong season at the Meadowlands with a Top Five finish. Tetrick had 95 wins at The Big M and was second in purses earnings with $4,091,471.

In 2020 Tetrick was third in North America in wins with 511 and second in money earnings with $9,944,144. On Hambletonian Day, he guided Shartin N to her third straight ($177,100) Lady Liberty in 1:48.2.

By far the leading money winner in the sport again in 2019 with over $10 million, Tetrick passed the 11,000 career wins plateau. He drove Horse of the Year candidate Shartin N to numerous major stakes wins, including the Lady Liberty in a world record of 1:46.4 while on a long winning streak. That outstanding pacing mare also won the Golden Girls on Pace Night. Tetrick added a 23-1 upset in the Hambletonian Maturity with Crystal Fashion and won the Mistletoe Shalee with Stonebridge Sou. Fittingly, Tetrick was honored as a 2020 nominee to the Harness Racing Hall of Fame.

In 2017, Tetrick passed 10,000 career wins with more than 500 wins (534) for the 12th time in 13 seasons. He also passed $11 million for the 11th year in a row and $188 million.

Tetrick followed up a dream season in 2012 with his seventh straight money title in 2013, passing the $14 million mark for the seventh consecutive year with over $16 million. He also won three Breeders Crown events at Pocono Downs with Market Share, I Luv The Nitelife and Captaintreacherous.

He capped off his 2012 campaign at the Big M with a bang, winning his first Hambletonian with Market Share in 1:52.1. He teamed up again with trainer Linda Toscano to post a world record of 1:50.1 with Horse of the Year Chapter Seven in the Nat Ray.

A native of Illinois, driver Tim Tetrick burst onto the national scene in 2007 when he set seasonal records for wins, with 1,189, and purses, with $18.35 million. He also won the $1 million Meadowlands Pace that year with Southwind Lynx. Tetrick won his second Meadowlands Pace in 2010 with One More Laugh.

Tetrick began his driving career in 1998 at the age of 16, guiding his father's horses around the Illinois county fair circuit. He graduated high school in 1999 and made the decision to try his hand as a catch-driver, despite winning an agricultural business scholarship. He drove at Illinois fairs and Blue Grass Downs in Kentucky before moving on to Hoosier Park in early 2001 where he became one of the top drivers. Tetrick's record numbers are all the more amazing considering he missed several weeks of racing in 2008 and 2009 to have his right hip replaced. The reinsman has suffered from a degenerative hip condition since childhood, had his left hip replaced in December of 2013 and returned to racing in early February of 2014.

Lauren Tritton continued to establish herself as a nightly regular at The Meadowlands in 2025, while operating a stable with her husband Shane. Overall, Tritton won 44 races and $549,749. Tritton drove the fastest mile in history by a female driver when she rallied Magnifico Hanover to a 1:49.2 clocking on September 13.

On Saturday, August 23, something special took place when Tritton became the first female driver in the history of The Big M to win three races on a card. "That's pretty cool," said Tritton, whose husband Shane trained all of the horses that Lauren piloted to victory. "It's actually mind-blowing that a woman, in all of those years, hasn't done that. I'm pretty proud of myself, to be honest."

To Lauren, having a big night in the sulky isn't something new. When she and Shane were back home in Australia, they, at one point, had 93 horses in their stable, and Lauren was the driver in the family. "I drove on the Grand Circuit when I was 17," said Lauren, 31. "I've been doing it since I was young."

Before coming to the States just as COVID-19 was shutting down the world, Lauren had much on her resume to brag about. She once won seven races on a card at Australia's Newcastle Harness Racing Club track and on 28 occasions had won four or more races on a single program. But that part of her career – despite her sensational Saturday – is behind her now.

"Back home, I just drove," said Lauren. "I came over here with the mindset that I was going to hang the boots up and focus on training. With two kids (Levi, 8, and Emily, 4), I made a deal that I would be more present for them, that I would pack that career away and focus more on training and I was happy to do that."

"I committed myself fully 100 percent back home to driving, and I'm the sort of person that I have to commit myself to something 100 percent or else I won't do it, and I feel like I wouldn't be able to do my best work here without committing myself, and if I commit myself, I'd be pulling myself away from my family, and my family is very important to me."

On TVG Night, Zeron finished second in the $451,800 Goldsmith Maid with Flawless Country, and was also runner up in the $150,000 TVG Mares Pace with Peaky Sneaky.

Despite making only 224 starts at the Meadowlands during the 2018-19 meet, Scott Zeron earned just over $1 million in East Rutherford, NJ, good for a hefty $4,893 per start. He won his first North America Cup with Captain Crunch at Woodbine @ Mohawk Park in 1:47.2. On Hambletonian Day, Zeron and Captain Crunch were back to turn the tables on Bettor's Wish with a 1:48 perfect trip in the Cane Pace.

Zeron continued to make history in 2018 and captured the biggest spotlight in the season's greatest moment when he won his second $1 million Hambletonian Final in three years with the outstanding filly Atlanta. Trained by his father Rick Zeron, the Chapter Seven filly bounced back from an elimination loss and overcame post seven to beat the boys in 1:50.

In 2017, Zeron concentrated on the major stakes trail and passed the $7 million mark for the third straight season (220 wins). His trotting star Marion Marauder won the Hambletonian Maturity and John Cashman Memorial.

In 20106 Zeron notched first Meadowlands driving title with 92 wins and $2 million in earnings. Also, just prior to turning 27, he won his first Hambletonian in straight heats with Marion Marauder, who also captured the Yonkers Trot and Kentucky Futurity for Zeron's first Trotting Triple Crown.
